What your family can expect from the faculty and staff of Riverview Lutheran School:

1. The staff of Riverview Lutheran School will love and treat each child as a redeemed child of God and nurture them through proper use of Law and Gospel.
2. The staff of Riverview Lutheran School will maintain a school environment that is safe and reflects the school's foundation, the Word of God.
3. The staff of Riverview Lutheran School will use their professional expertise to meet the spiritual, academic, social, emotional and physical needs of each child for success in today's changing world.
4. The staff of Riverview Lutheran School will communicate consistently and openly with families regarding their child's progress.
5. The staff of Riverview Lutheran School will treat parents with Christian love and respect, recognizing them as those who have been given the primary responsibility of bringing up their children in the "training and instruction of the Lord" and assisting them in this God-given task.

What the faculty and staff of Riverview Lutheran School can expect of families:

1. Parents will encourage the spiritual growth of their entire family through the use of God's Word at home and in their church and encourage their children to actively participate in their church.
2. Parents who are not members of Riverview or another WELS or ELS church body will consider participating in Bible information classes with one of our pastors to become familiar with the beliefs and teachings of Riverview Lutheran Church and School.
3. Parents will cooperate with and support the entire spiritual and academic program of instruction offered at Riverview Lutheran School.
4. Parents of Riverview Lutheran School will communicate frequently and openly with teachers and principal regarding their child's progress.
5. Parents of Riverview Lutheran School will treat the staff of Riverview with the Christian love and respect that is due to those who have been called by God to teach and keep watch over the young souls entrusted to their care.
